BIOGRAPHY & ARTWORK

Pablo Albertí, Madrid, Spain, 1962, with a long artistic family background, soon began his works in sculpture finding out new sensations, especially with the body language, their movements and the poetry of gestures.

GESTURE POETRY

The human figures portrayed partially, the play of light and shadow, striking expressions, feelings and senses, form the basis of a formula to suggest figures looking at us and make us think and of course feel. It is a constant in all his work and collections from the early materials in clay, plaster, stone and wood, to finally simplifying the forms using metallic wire to deepen these feeling.

That happened all periods long from the their primary collections as

THE MAGIC "DUENDE FLAMENCO"

From 2019 is involved in an sculpt tribute to the flamenco dance variants (bulerías, jaleo, malagueñas, cantinas, peteneras, fandangos...) with mixed technique of iron, oxide, silver, gold and stone, oriented to cultures and countries recently interested and attracted by the magic of the goblin (duende flamenco).

IT BECOMES SILVER OR GOLD....WHEN DISCOVERED

It is happening in Japan, and recently in UAE when last November 2020 Flamenco Passion was presented in Dubai Opera .

TWISTED IRON MAKES GOBLIN COMES OUT FROM THE DEEP...

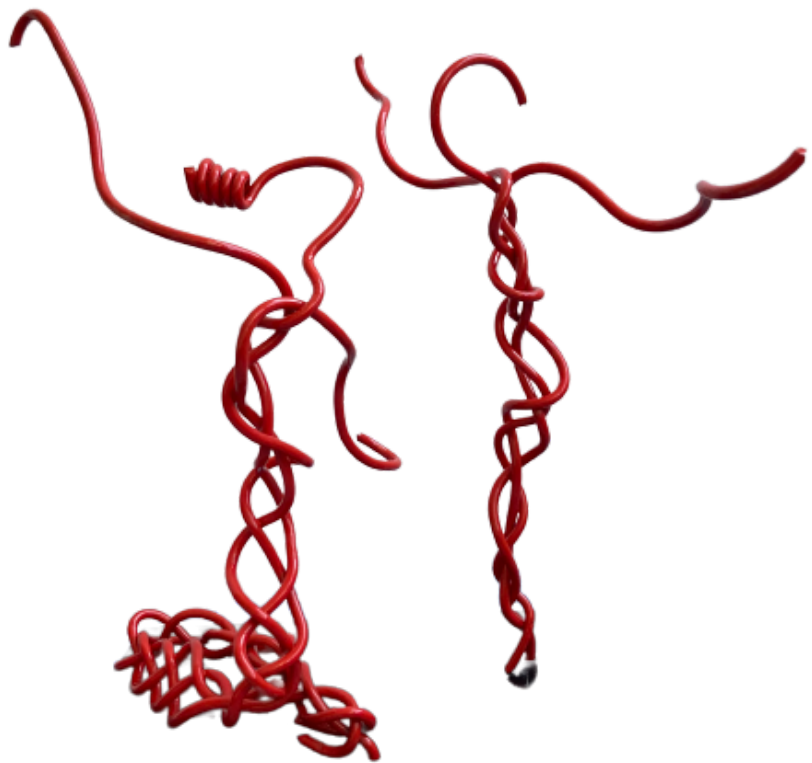

Furamenkoato transmits the sensation of the existence of the duende (magic) in flamenco dance. Twisted arms and figure, the "goblin" appears when the soul exists. It is the feeling of the "cantaor" (singer) or the "bailaor" (dancer) turned into pure art, into almost perfect talent, it is something magical, mysterious and authentic.

AND YES... THE DUENDE EXITS

The figure with twisted iron represents the moment in which the "duende" comes out from the deep hills of being and shows all the strength of him.
